BIRNAMWOOD GOLF COURSE EASTER EGG HUNT APRIL 21

Golfers Invited to Hunt for Easter Eggs While Enjoying a Round of Golf – Weather Permitting

The Easter Bunny plans on making a stop at Birnamwood Golf course Sunday, April 21 -- if sunshine and warm weather return in time!

If the course is open, golfers with a tee time can also grab a basket along with their clubs. While hunting for golf balls, they are invited to keep an eye out for Easter eggs hidden throughout the course. The annual Easter Egg Hunt is open to all paying golfers and pass holders.

When: Sunday, April 21 (weather permitting)

Where: Birnamwood Golf Course
12424 Parkwood Drive, Burnsville

Cost: Free to paying golfers (golf is $14.50/round)

Easter Egg Hunt Rules*

Participants in the event must have a tee time on Sunday, April 21. Plastic Easter eggs will be hidden throughout the golf course with a number inside. Each number will be assigned a specific prize. Found eggs can be brought to the clubhouse after the round, and Birnamwood staff will match the number to the prize board and award a prize.

Limit of one egg per paying golfer or Birnamwood pass holder.*

To verify the course is open on Sunday and to make a tee time, call 952-641-1370.
