Burnsville Police Seek the Public's Help With Information on Alleged Sexual Predator

(BURNSVILLE, MN – NOVEMBER 5, 2025) Burnsville Police are seeking the public's help with information on a recently charged Burnsville man criminally charged in Dakota County with multiple felony crimes related to the sexual abuse of minors and the production and possession of child sexual abuse material (CSAM). Dakota County prosecutors charged Teodros Pluntz, 19, on September 22, 2025, with several crimes, and Burnsville detectives believe there may be additional victims.

Pluntz allegedly met victims through various social media applications before meeting up with them in person. Detectives are requesting members of the public who were in contact with Pluntz to come forward and share their information. If you have information related to Pluntz, please contact Burnsville Detective Casey Buck at 952-895-4588 (phone), 952-215-8430 (text) or casey.buck@burnsvillemn.gov. Please continue to call 911 for any emergencies.

A summary of facts about the cases may be found in the criminal complaints, which can be viewed on publicaccess.courts.state.mn.us (court file numbers: 19HACR251706 and 19HACR251707).
